Meade County Extension will be hosting a Hunter Hack Clinic on June 3rd at the Meade County Fairgrounds. The clinic will start at 9:00 AM and go until shortly after lunch or longer if needed. Karrie Miller of Meade will instruct the clinic. Karrie comes from an extensive background of horses. She was a longtime 4-Her in Barton County and has also shown extensively in AQHA, as well as national championships in dressage. Karrie also placed 3rd in nation show jumping in her youth career. She was chosen as alternate for United States Pony Club team to compete in South Africa. Karrie still competes in her spare time and has taught riding lessons as a professional for 12 years. Please join us for a day of English Hunter Hack learning on June 3rd at the Meade County Fairgrounds.
