CODE OF CONDUCT & PARENTAL RELEASE FOR PARTICIPATION

As a participant in Kids A Cookin” you are expected to conduct yourself in a manner that will bring honor to you, your family and 4-H. To do that, you must:

1. Be responsible for your actions by following the rules and being accountable.
2. Know that harassment/bullying of any type is prohibited and won’t be tolerated.
3. Be a good citizen by participating fully, and help those around you have positive experiences.
4. PLEASE NOTIFY THE INSTRUCTOR OF FOOD ALLERGIES.
   a. If you have a food allergy, some of the food items may not be consumed.
   b. Recipes will need to be adjusted at home.
   c. We welcome all youth to participate, however their food allergies may prevent them from eating the food items.

PARENT/GUARDIAN

We have read the Code of Conduct above and agree to abide by these expectations. I as the parent/guardian understand that the youth will be supervised and that, if a serious illness or injury develops, medical and/or hospital care will be given; however, the sponsor, including the volunteers and entities of K-State Research and Extension are not responsible in-case of accidental injury or illness.
